

Press Release

Campbell & Campbell Real Estate Services Welcomes New Agents, Sales Manager

The Campbell Team adds six new agents, office sales manager

Albuquerque, 03 May 2004: Campbell & Campbell Real Estate Services is proud to announce the addition of six agents to The Campbell Team: Gary L. Orr, Anthony G. Torres, Marsha L. Chandler, Carrie Strong, Marsha Strange, & John Franklin. With the rapid expansion of the office, they have also hired their first office sales manager, Bill Hoppe.

Mr. Hoppe brings an extensive management background to the real estate firm in addition to his personal real estate practice. The new agents work as buyer specialist assistants on The Campbell Team while a couple also are lead generators.

Ron Campbell, Broker/Owner, is thrilled with these additions to his growing company and personal team. He is the only New Mexico real estate professional to be ranked in REALTOR® Magazine's Top 100 Agents for the last three years. Since 1990 when Mr. Campbell and The Campbell Team started in the real estate industry, they have received numerous local and national awards for transaction sales volume and sales units.

Campbell & Campbell Real Estate Services provides a superior level of informed, professional real estate services to buyers and sellers in the greater Albuquerque area. Additional information is available on our corporate website: www.WeSellNM.com