

Press Release

Real Estate Website Wins National Award

The Campbell Team adds another award to their resume

Albuquerque, 03 May 2004: Campbell & Campbell Real Estate Services is proud to announce that The Campbell Team's website, www.MetroHomeSearch.com, has been awarded the Vandema Gold Award.

The award recognizes real estate websites that demonstrate excellence in providing useful real estate related information, effectiveness, design and presentation.

MetroHomeSearch.com has received other awards since its inception in 1999. The site offers extensive property information, photos, virtual tours, a monthly newsletter, and free information on how to buy and sell homes.

Since 1990, The Campbell Team has received numerous local and national awards for transaction sales volume and sales units with career sales in excess of $300 million in residential real estate.

Campbell & Campbell Real Estate Services provides a superior level of informed, professional real estate services to buyers and sellers in the greater Albuquerque area. Additional information is available on our corporate website: www.WeSellNM.com